Father, Mother, and Three Sisters Dead.

Mr. David Claypool, formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the New Jersey Senate, and a Notary Public at Cedarville, Cumberland Co., N. J., makes the following startling statement: "My father, mother, and three sisters all died with consumption, and my lungs were so weak I raised blood. Nobody thought I could live. My work (ship-smithing) was very straining on me with my weak constitution, and I was rapidly going to the grave. While in this condition I commenced using Mischler's Herb Bitters, and it saved my life. Because it was so difficult to get it in this little place, and I had improved so much, I stopped taking it for a time, and the result is that I have commenced going rapidly down hill again. Somehow, Mischler's Herb Bitters gives me appetite and strengthens and builds me up as nothing else does, and I must have a dozen bottles at once. Use this communication as you please, and if any one wants to be convinced of its truth, let me write me and I will make affidavit to it, for I owe my life to Mischler's Herb Bitters."

"The secret of the almost invariable relief and cure of consumption, dysentery, diarrhea, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints, when Mischler's Herb Bitters is used, is that it contains simple, harmless, and yet powerful ingredients, that act on the blood, kidneys, and liver, and through them strengthen and invigorate the whole system. Purely vegetable in its composition; prepared by a regular physician; a standard medicinal preparation; endorsed by physicians and druggists. These are four strong points in favor of Mischler's Herb Bitters. Mischler's Herb Bitters is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle, 6 bottles for $5.00. Ask your druggist for Mischler's Herb Bitters. If he does not keep it, do not take anything else, but send a postal card to Mischler's Herb Bitters Co., 222 Commerce Street, Philadelphia."

Railroad Man.
Frank B. Lee, office N. Y. C. & T. I. R. Little Falls, N. Y., June 8, 1888, says:—"My father, 62 years old, had severe kidney and bladder disease for 20 years, without causing acute pain. OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

PULL 'EM IN.

The Police Asked to Raid the Pool "Holes" where Boys are Disgraced.

It has been the practice for some time past with a number of saloon keepers in this city, particularly a hole not far from THE SENTINEL office, to allow minors to play pool and billiards in their establishments. Considerable complaint in regard to the matter has already been made by the parents of young boys who frequent these places and are taught the ways of the drunkard and loafer, and unless stopped legal action should be taken against the proprietors. The law on this matter is very strict and we quote two sections of it for the benefit of Mayor Muhler, who has the sand to stop this traffic of the dives by instructing the police to pull them:

"Any person owning or having the care, management or control of any billiard table, pool table, or pigeon hole table, shall allow, suffer or permit any minor to play billiards, bagatelle, pool, or any other game at or upon such table or tables, he shall, upon conviction thereof, for each game so allowed, suffered, or permitted to be played, be fined in any sum not more than $50 nor less than $5."

"If any person owning or having the care, management or control of any billiard table or tables, pool table or any kind gaming table, bagatelle table, or pigeon hole table kept in any saloon, hotel or other gambling place, shall allow, suffer or permit minors to congregate at, in or about such place, where such billiard tables, pool or any kind of gaming table may be kept, he shall for each offense be fined in any sum not more than $50 nor less than $5."

TOOK THE POT.

Capt. Diehl and Posse Raid a Gaming Room at Midnight.

Last night at the witching hour Capt. Diehl and a posse of police raided the gaming room over the Occidental and captured thirteen energetic gentlemen who were vainly endeavoring to skin each other over the green cloth. The party was placed under arrest and put their names down as follows: William Wike, Chas. A. Smith, John Harper, Sam W. Frimus, Jos. Shuman, Frank Morvilius, Wm. Hardesty, Joseph Smith, Chas. Muldoon, Albert Harrington, Chas. Fellows, Chas. Beebe, Lewis Oliver.

The professional sports made a great kick and threatened contests, legal fights and other terrible things, but Captain Diehl smiled and made them put up $18 a piece. This was quite a haul and eats up the profits of the house during the fair.

Merchants, Read This.

To those subject to ills incident to the vexations of business life, dyspepsia and a feeling of debility and fruitfulness, we say, without equivocation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. This remedy is unequalled in the cure of piles, constipation, bad breath, sick headache and bilious complaints. The Regulator is free from any injurious mercurial substance; not disagreeable; can be taken at any time with business or pleasure. It is gentle, safe and a good digester.

Nickel-Plate.

"By the time this rate war is over, the Nickel Plate bondholders will have lost some of their present confidence in the ability of the road to earn 2 per cent, interest on the mortgage bonds, and will be willing to accept the Vanderbilt offer of 3 per cent," said a well posted railroad manager, at Chicago, yesterday. "It may be that you can find one of the motives for the continuance of the contest in the situation. The line is not earning much at present rates, but it is a constant thorn in the side of the Lake Shore, and must be gathered in." The gentleman's remark called to mind the fact that while Vanderbilt lines were nominally asking twelve cents on grain to New York, the Nickel Plate was taking all that offered at ten cents. It may be making a fine showing of business at that figure, but not much profit. It may be only a co-incidence, but people will put two and two together and draw conclusions.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE "TWO JOHNS"

closed a profitable engagement here last night. The play is bright and very amusing, but grows wearisome when seen more than once. The attendance at the Temple should warrant Manager Simonson in bringing the best and finest attractions on the road to Fort Wayne. He will do this, but not very long if people do not appreciate it. He is not begging patronage, nor is THE SENTINEL seeking it for him. It would not put a penny more in his pocket, but it is just a little bit desirable to rise above dime shows and coax "snow balls" out of the pockets of a few Fort Wayne capitalists who have not seen a show or enjoyed a hearty laugh in a half century.

COMING!

The furor to see Bartley Campbell's "SIBERIA" marks its progress through the country and seems to increase in its third year's tour. There is an attention paid to small details and a perfection in the representation not often seen. The company interpreting it is thoroughly competent and efficient. The costuming is strictly correct, and rich and beautiful where it should be. The soldiers look, march and act like veterans. The convicts look like convicts—and there is a reality about the market women and the mob that goes far to aid in the illusion. When the mob assails "Sara," and again when the massacre of Jews takes place, and the poor wretches are shot and beaten down, the whole thing is so real that even the gallery, so prone to gey the least hitch in matters of this kind, is hushed with terror until the curtain goes down, when loud applause testifies to its excited feeling, in which the whole house joins. The scenes are no less worthy of mention. Particularly the Market Place in the City of Moscow—The Palace—The Mines of Siberia—and the Harbor of Odessa. There are no number two, three and four Companies of Siberia. The play is given if for only one night in its integrity. The discipline of the organization is strict in regard to adherence to the author. No curtailment is permitted in order to catch a waiting train. Every performance of this Company rivets the public favor and assures for it a welcome return.

That Terrible Drain

which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue. For purifying and vitalizing effects, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood, and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

Henry V. Lucas, manager of the St. Louis base ball club, is reported to have lost $40,000 this season.

The intimate relation existing between the stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and indeed the entire internal organism gives an additional value to a remedy that can successfully battle with the diseases affecting these parts of our system. This Mischler's Herb Bitters can do, and thousands of testimonials bear out the claim. D. M. Pfantz, of Hunter's Dale, Centre county, Pa., whose complaint was palpitation of the heart and weakness of the kidneys, used the medicine, and now he has no trouble.

Frightful Case Of a Colored Man!

I contracted a fearful case of blood poison in 1883. I was treated by some of the best physicians in Atlanta. They used the old remedies of mercury and potash, which brought on rheumatism and impaired my digestive organs. Every joint in me was swollen and full of pain. I was in a horrible condition; when I had been given up to die, my physician, who had seen the workings of the medicine in other cases, thought it would be a splendid time to test the virtues of Swift's Specific. When I commenced taking S. S. S. the physician said I could not live two weeks under the ordinary treatment. He commenced to give me the medicine strictly according to directions, which I took for several months. I took nothing else, and commenced to improve from the first. Occasionally I would have a basket from imprudence. Soon rheumatism left me, my appetite became all right, and the ulcers, which the doctor said were the most frightful he had ever seen, began to heal, and by the first of October, 1884, I was a well man again. I am stronger now than I ever was before, and weigh more. I have not failed to report for duty since that time, being engaged in the oil warehouse of Chess-Carley Company. I have been, and still am, doing some of the hardest work any man ever did, and am ready to answer any question that may be asked concerning this cure. Swift's Specific has saved me from an early grave. LEM MCCLENDON.
Atlanta, Ga., April 18, 1885.

Lem McClendon has been in the employ of the Chess-Carley Company for some years, and I know the above statements to be true. At the time he began taking Swift's Specific he was in a horrible condition, and at my solicitation his treatment with S. S. S. was undertaken by a physician after several others had declared his case to be hopelessly incurable. He took nothing but S. S. S., and has been as sound as a new dollar for several months. I regard his cure almost miraculous. Chess-Carley Co., Atlanta Division.
Atlanta, Ga., April 18, 1885.

CAUTION!
Consumers should not confuse our Specific with the numerous imitations, substitutes, potash and mercury mixtures, which are gotten up to sell, not on their merit, but on the merit of our remedy. An imitation is always a fraud and a cheat, and the only way as they can steal from the article imitated. For sale by all druggists. Treatise on blood and skin disease mailed free.

DR. BIGGERS' HUCKLEBERRY CORDIAL.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.
Any child can take this cordial without the evil effects many medicines produce in checking the bowels too suddenly, resulting in spasms.

THE CHILD TEETHING.
The wearied mother, losing sleep nursing the little one wasting away from the drainage upon its system, should administer this cordial, which will relieve it.

CRAMP COLIC.
It is as important to have a safeguard against this sudden attack as against the robber that invades your house. Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial is the weapon.

CHOLERA MORBUS.
The eating of green or stale fruit produces fermentation in the stomach, which results in Cholera Morbus. This cordial will neutralize the acidity of the stomach.

DIARRHÆA.
It will check it gradually, not leaving the bowels in a constipated state as many preparations do, but will remove the inflammation from the bowels.

DYSENTERY.
Chronic Dysentery is considered one of the most dangerous diseases that can affect the bowels, certainly the most weakening. This cordial will cure it.

CHOLERA.
Old Dr. Biggers, President Georgia Eclectic Medical College, added one table-spoonful Tincture Red Pepper to his cordial and was successful in curing all cases. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS. Price, 50c. a Bottle.

TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be, in all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption of business while taking the Regulator.

Children complaining of Colic, Headache, or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid instead of weakening the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. The New Church and the Old.

The chorus of cutters' chisels,
Chipping the limestone rock,
Begins as the hour of seven
Strikes on the lower clock;
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
No music to me so sweet
As the sound of the cutters' chisels
Heard in the village street.

A row of tireless workmen
Under the village trees,
None a sound save their cutting,
Borne on the morning breeze,
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
With patience, and skill, and care,
Stones for a sacred temple,
A shrine for praise and prayer.

Standing in quiet beauty,
From the village street aloof,
With its mantle of climbing ivy,
Pinned to the moss-grown roof,
Dear to the hearts of the people
Who had watched its walls grow gray,
Was the Church where the rich man lowly,
Had found it good to pray.

Now with stones from the quarry
Rid in the neighboring hill,
The workmen are raising a temple
Fairer and bet' er still;
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
Stones that shall serve indeed
As the bond of generations,
With all their human need.

Many a heart was heavy
As the walls of the Old Church fell,
For it seemed as if another
Could not be loved so well;
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
Each sharp stroke seemed to say
That old associations
Were being swept away.

To some the Church was radiant
With the light of the marriage morn,
And for some it kept sweet memories
Of each new baby born,
And some remembered only
How its sacred aisles were pressed
By the feet of those who carried
Parent or child to rest.

But the sound of the cutters' chisels
Is borne on the morning breeze,
And a fair New Church is rising
Under the ancient trees,
Tho' it seems to the village people
That the holiest thing on earth
Was the Old Church with its record
Of marriage, death, and birth.

So in this world of changes
The old to the new gives way;
We live for the long to-morrow,
As well as the yesterday,
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
Stones that shall find a place
In the perfect human temple
That is rising here apace.

We live for the long to-morrow,
With its triumph but begun,
When truth shall drop its shackles,
And the goal of hope be won;
Chipping, chipping, chipping,
With patience, and faith, and prayer,
Stones for the Church whose towers
Shall rise in the upper air.

—Arthur Wentworth Eaton, in Youth's Companion.

Prayer as a Tonic.

You have hoped that, as an answer to your prayer for strength, strength would be given, and this was a just and right hope; but, oh! so much more than this is your portion; to know that prayer itself is the spiritual tonic, and that the very continuance in that earnest communion with God is the thing that will enrich your life, renew your energy, and lift you up to a vantage ground in respect to your temptations, by tuning up the very spirit and temper of your mind. So that your struggle is no more the base, half-yielding struggle it was, but a sublime conquest, accomplished through the power of this divine presence in which you are abiding. We have spoken of friendship; it is a noble illustration. You have been very weak in spirit, very impoverished, and making a miserable work with life. This friend came suddenly in upon you, perhaps for a few moments only, but bright, earnest, pure—radiating a life power that, changed you, that warmed you, purified you, toned you, that lifted you to victory. This is like prayer in its fullest sense. You are praying, indeed, most earnestly for a special thing; but now you have learned that the special thing is not the only blessing. There is one much dearer, even the act of praying for it. Prayer is not crying out to a distant God, but holy continuance in the immediate presence of the divine friend. Prayer is drinking from the fountain of strength, eating of the manna of life.

We kneel, how weak! we rise, how full of power!

What you need, what I need, is far more of this kind of prayer. In prayer we close our eyes through involuntary reverence, that we may not be distracted by surrounding objects; but often we have closed also the eyes of the soul, and asked blindly, as if the thing we asked were the only blessing, and the act nothing—nothing but the means. But when we pray aright the soul's eyes are open, and fastened on the face of God, and our hands are folded in his, and prayer is companionship.—Sermon by Charles Guthbert Hale.

Fresh as the first beam, glittering on a sail That brings our friends up from the underworld, So the last, which reddens over one That shirks with all we love below the verge: So sad, so fresh, the days that are no more.—Batyand Taylor.

The Crazy Quilt.

This new and fashionable device of the young ladies for using up old bits of silk and satin is one of the most popular means of spending spare evenings. The quilt is of more colors than ever appeared in Joseph's coat. The proper way of using a "crazy quilt" is to throw it over a weary person who suffers with debility and lies on a lounge. Administer Brown's Iron Bitters, and his joy will be complete. Crazy quilts have to be made to order, but you can buy Brown's Iron Bitters of any druggist.

In continued fevers, especially those of a malarial origin, and in the so-called "Chill and Fever" or fever and ague section of the country, Nichols' Bark and Iron is almost a specific. 2-4w

A strong incentive to use only the Richmond Straight Cut Cigarettes is the fact that the quality is not only the very best, but reliable.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. 1eod&wly.

COUNTERFEITERS BEWARE.

A Michigan Concern Enjoined.
[From the Rochester Morning Herald.]

The following injunction has been obtained by the Hop Bitters Company, of Rochester, N. Y., against Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Michigan, prohibiting him from manufacturing or selling "German Hop Bitters."

The President of the United States of America to Collatinus D. Warner, of Reading, Mich., his servants, workmen, salesmen and agents, and each and every one of them:

Whereas, it has been represented unto the Justices of our Circuit Court, the Hon. Stanley Matthews, and the Hon. Henry B. Brown, at Detroit, within and for said district, sitting as a court of Chancery, that you, Collatinus D. Warner, are manufacturing and selling a medicine named German Hop Bitters, in fraudulent imitation of the Hop Bitters made and sold by complainant; your said medicine being devised, calculated and intended to mislead the public into purchasing such counterfeit goods as the manufacture of the complainant.

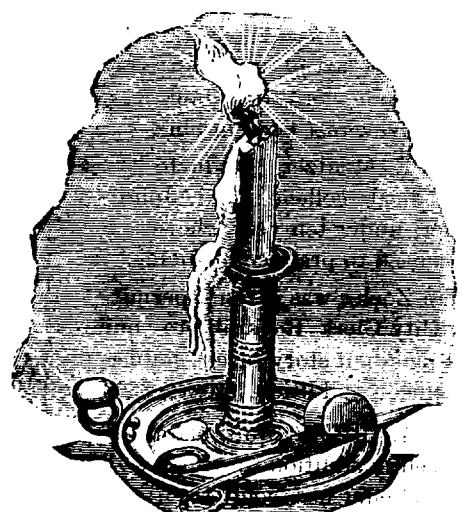

We therefore, in consideration of the premises, do strictly enjoin you, the said Collatinus D. Warner and all and every the persons before named, from using the words "Hop Bitters" on any fluids contained in bottles so as to induce the belief that such fluids are made by complainant; and further, from manufacturing, selling or offering for sale, any bitters or other fluids in the bottles and with labels, and in the general form in which you were manufacturing and selling the bitters, called by you German Hop Bitters, on the filling of the bill; or in any other bottles, or with any other labels contrived or designed to represent or induce the belief that the bitters or fluids sold by you are the goods of the complainant, until the further order of the court.

Witness
THE HONORABLE MORRISON R. WAITE,
Chief Justice of the United States.
At Detroit, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1885.
[L. S.] Walter S. Harsha, clerk.

Prosecute the Scoundrels!!!

If when you call for Hop Bitters the druggist hands out anything but "Hop Bitters" with a green cluster of Hops on white label, shun that druggist as you would a viper; and if he has taken your money for a bogus stuff, indict him for the fraud and sue him for damages for the swindle, and we will reward you liberally for the conviction.

See U. S. Court injunction against C. D. Warner, Reading, Mich., and all his salesmen, agents, druggists, and other imitators.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 3,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive qualities of petroleum. If every house hold would adopt the White Seal oil for family use, none of these unfortunate accidents would occur.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL
has none of the defects usually found in common oils. It cannot be exploded, does not char the wick, will not smoke, emits no offensive odor, and prevents the breaking of chimneys.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL
is a rich oil for illuminating purposes. It is as light in color as pure spring water. It gives a strong steady light, and burns much longer than common oils.

If the White Seal Burning Oil is not sold in your vicinity, send your order direct to us for a barrel or a case containing two neat five gallon cans.

THE CITY.

Col. Sam B. Sweet, division freight agent of the Wabash, is in the city.

Mrs. Mary Amstutz paid a fine yesterday for provoking one Edward Riehl.

The Pittsburg shops were closed yesterday afternoon on account of the fair.

Master of Transportation James W. Hunter will return from Kalamazoo tonight.

Margaret Gray has sued Willard Gray for a divorce. A. H. Bittinger filed the complaint.

Tom Kennedy says he was assaulted last night by a fellow who drove a dirk knife into his wrist.

Passenger trains No. 7 and 8 on the Richmond road, as is the usual fall custom, have been taken off.

John Phelps and Simon Kelly left yesterday for Saratoga, to take engines on the Hoosac Tunnel route.

One hundred and fifty through passengers per day are hauled on Wabash trains between St. Louis and Detroit.

But two convicted felons now await transportation to the prison north. Sheriff Nelson will send them up early next week.

The Stengerbund excursion train leaves the Wabash depot at 7:30 a. m. to-morrow. The round trip fare to Toledo is but $2.

"Mrs. Fred L. Racine and two children, of Fort Wayne, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sablin in Milford township," says the Kendallville Standard.

The conductors of the Friendly Hand Division, No. 125, of the Wabash, will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers at Andrews, on Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Mabus, of Covington, Ky., and Mrs. Herman Reuss, of Cincinnati, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Reuss, of Centlivre's village.

Eli Miner and Ella Johnson, Jacob E. White, Nettie J. Murray, James Wells and Mary Overly, John Gilby and Elizabeth Dehaven, have been permitted to commit matrimony.

J. S. Finkenbinder, general agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company, for Virginia and North Carolina, is in the city on a visit. Mr. Finkenbinder is now a resident of Richmond, Va.

The Stengerbund society will run an excursion to Toledo to-morrow. This is one of the most agreeable trips out of Fort Wayne and hundreds of people will avail themselves of the opportunity to go along.

The earnings of the Wabash system for August were $1,132,306, against $1,427,533 for the corresponding year in 1884. The earnings of the road for the eight months of the year, $83,662,694, decrease this year, $778,046.

A freight train and a construction train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana collided in a cut near Ridgeville, Tuesday. No one was hurt, but both locomotives were badly smashed. The collision was caused by misconstruction of orders.

The usual quarterly missionary concert, of the Presbyterian church, will be held at Kendallville, Sunday, September 27. Mrs. Wells, of Fort Wayne, will make the address of the evening, and Miss Ross, of Winchester, Ind., will sing.

There is a big camp fire at Andrews to-day. Col. D. N. Foster, of this city, was announced to deliver the principal address. Colonel Foster is the most popular commander the G. A. R. department of Indiana ever had and a man of marked brilliancy.

Senoka Ogato, a native of Japan, and a graduate of DePauw University, will lecture at the Berry street M. E. church, next Thursday evening. He is highly recommended by those who have heard him. His lecture will be about his native land and will be very instructive.

Two young ladies of the West End have been in the habit of occasionally putting on male attire and parading the streets on summer evenings. No doubt this is "lots of fun" for you, young ladies, but it is contrary to law and the police may take a hand in the sport. Besides, it is naughty. Don't do so again.

"The reformed gambler, Mace Long, who has been talking to crowds in the streets here for a few days past, and who has been making war on card-playing, dancing and drinking, and who has been gathering many dimes, left yesterday for the other side of the river, taking with him his quartet of vocalists. They give an interesting street entertainment," says the Omaha Bee.

The new split switch of the Missouri Pacific standard pattern is being put in everywhere on the main line of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railway as fast as they can be procured. They possess many merits over the old style switch. There being no joints the common fault of "running" is averted. Engines or cars cannot get off the track on account of the switch being left open, as the small bolts by which the spring contrivance is fastened will break and allow the wheels to pass in safety.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fisher, are at Peacock.

Miss Sadie Churchill, is the guest of Miss Fannie Page.

Capt. S. L. Lewis, night transfer agent, is at Chicago.

In the event of Col. C. A. Zollinger's appointment to the office of state pension agent, George F. Shutt, of the Journal, will be his first deputy.

There will be no exercises in St. Mary's church on account of the repairs being made. There will be services held in the school building, but this is so small that a great many of the members will have to go to the other Catholic churches to worship.

For several months past the Pennsylvania railroad company have been lighting nine of their cars with incandescent electric lamps. The electricity is produced by brush storage batteries, which are charged once a week. The storage batteries are carried underneath the cars in boxes built to receive them. The light is said to be very satisfactory and not expensive.

To-morrow will be an occasion of special interest to the members of Plymouth Congregational church and congregation. It will be the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of that church. Sermon in the morning by Rev. L. P. Rose, of Indianapolis. The other services of morning and evening will be full of interest, and we hope, profit. Letters will be read from former pastors. The public are cordially invited.

THE CLOSE.

The Great Northern Indiana Fair Makes Its Annual Farewell Bow to the Summit City.

The Great Northern Indiana fair of 1885 is at an end. It was never surpassed. No finer general exhibition and speed program was ever witnessed here and the fact that it was not better patronized is a mystery. Fine crowds of 10,000, 12,000 and so on were gathered on the grounds, and we think every person present were pleased with the entire fair from beginning to end. The managers spared nothing to make it a good fair. Large premiums were offered and every inducement made to bring the best stock in the country here. The fair managers will lose money for the first time since the organization of the present society.

The closing record of the speed department can be found below, with a few references to the prominent exhibits:

THE DISPLAYS.

WAGNER & JOOST, PIANOS AND ORGANS.

One of the most attractive displays on the grounds was found in the middle of the main building. It was that of Wagner & Joost, of 27 West Main street, dealers in pianos and organs. The display was tasteful throughout. Wagner is an experienced piano maker, trained in the best eastern factories, and Prof. Joost is widely and favorably known as a teacher of instrumental music. The firm thus has not only the components of success, but is such a one is able to make valuable suggestions to the seeker after a good instrument. They are agents for the pianos of Hazleton Bros., and Kranich & Bach and besides rebuild, repair and tune pianos. Their warehouse has become headquarters for lovers of music.

A HOME PICTURE.

Mr. W. E. Griffiths, the well known Broadway hardware merchant, had a magnificent exhibit in the exposition building at the fair. A noticeable feature of the varied and extensive collection he displayed was the "Radiant Home" square stoves. They are beauties and grace any parlor or setting room. But a thing of beauty is not always desirable unless it renders service, and just here is where THE SENTINEL makes a point. The "Radiants" are household gems. They are superior to all others. They are heavy, massive, substantial and durable. They combine good working qualities, superior heating capacity, economy and durability in an eminent degree. In quality and smoothness of castings, thorough fitting and mounting, they are unequalled. The "Radiant Home Duplex Grate" with which they are furnished, takes precedence over all others for the facility with which ashes and clinkers are removed. They are cleanly, there being no escape of dust or ashes while cleaning the grate. To clean the grate, you simply turn it over and back again to its place; this dumps all the refuse in the a pan instantly. They require but little attention, maintaining for hours an even, steady, continuous heat. The "Radiant Home" square stove stands unrivaled for excellence and beauty. This is the season to buy a stove and THE SENTINEL asks its readers to inspect Mr. Griffith's stock before making a choice. You'll not regret it.

THEY TELL THEIR OWN STORY.

In a corner of the exposition building at the fair was a display that a few might thoughtlessly pass by. The most attractive thing about the collection, was a red prize ribbon knotted tastefully about the spoke of a buggy wheel from the White Wheel Works, of this city. The display included every design from the massive truck bearer to the light, handsome carriage and buggy wheel. Few people realize where these famous wheels whirl. One set were taken from a consignment billed to New Orleans, another was labeled for Cambridge, Maine, and still another is due at Sacramento, Cal. It is a fact, and THE SENTINEL notes it with pride, that the White wheels whirl on the roads and boulevards of every state from New York to California and Maine to the Gulf of Mexico. The White Wheel works not only cover this territory but they supply home trade, probably a better testimonial to their durability and worth than any thing that could be conceived. When a man sells an article at home and it is worthless he promptly finds it out. There is no deception, no imperfection about the White wheels. They stand the test of time at home and abroad and go into the market through retail and wholesale local dealers as well as direct from the parent house. The White Wheel works are familiarly located in White's suburb, or addition. About the extensive works has grown up a metropolitan-like village which can be likened to Pullman, a Chicago suburb. This institution grows in favor and ere long its trade will encompass the globe. THE SENTINEL will live to record the fact. See if it don't.

A DARING JOB.

Keil Bros. Book Store Safe Cracked and Some $600 in Cash Taken—Louis Wolf's Fur Rooms Touched

The most daring burglary recorded here in years was committed last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock. About 9:30 Monsieur Girard, who keeps a photograph gallery over Fred Eckart's meat market, discovered that some one had looted the glim in his studio and smashed the transum over a door to the picture gallery. He ran to the police station and on the way told Officer Lee of the occurrence. The patrolman hastened to the place and made a thorough search of the building. He was speedily reinforced by Captain Deihl and Lieut. Frank Wilkinson. Going up the stairway Officer Lee discovered three lady's fur coats. This was a pointer that the thieves had fled, and so they did, for a son of Fred Eckert pointed one of the fellows out to Merchant Policeman Jesse Lehr, who did not care to follow the clue but asked Capt. Deihl to do so later. At this hour the officers knew not the extent of the raid and gave the matter up as a scare. There was somewhat of a surprise party this morning when the big robbery was discovered. The thieves got into Eckert's building at about 8 o'clock and stole back through some vacant rooms and the work shop of Girard's photograph gallery. They climbed on the roof through the scuttle hole and with the aid of a ladder scaled the high wall of Keil Bros. book store, adjoining. Once on the roof, the thieves leisurely walked to the first floor where no light was burning and nothing left to interfere with their work. The crooks took a chisel and out off the combination handle. With another instrument they forced in the bolt that connects the combination and turned the lock at their pleasure. It cannot be said how the inside burglar proof doors were opened, but they were and with such a degree of ease that stamps the old Mosler safe a flat failure. The firm of Keil Bros., had $60 cash in the safe. This was stored away. Mr. F. W. Keil had a private drawer in the safe. He kept his cash there and but last night added $200 cash to probably $300 he had in the box before that time. His loss will reach something like $500, but he is modest and makes it less. The firm loses but $60, as none of its stock nor a bundle of drafts were touched.

A gold watch was taken from Keil Bros. safe. It was worth $50 and belonged to a lady who left it for safe keeping.

Next the thieves got into Louis Wolf's store. They had no trouble getting into the third and fourth floors, but could not get to the second floor, as nothing but an elevator joins the two. The descent they would not hazard and contented themselves by taking a number of fur articles, but just of what value Mr. Wolf cannot now tell. His loss will not be heavy.

Mr. Wolf closes his store at 7 o'clock and the Messrs. Keil locked their doors between 8:30 and 9 o'clock last night. The robbers were undoubtedly in the building then awaiting their time, because both burglaries did not consume a half an hour. It did not require twenty minutes to open Keil Bros.' safe and it startles a person to see how easy the crooked work is done. All the officers are working on the burglary, but the thieves are as sharp as the police and will not be caught. This theft will have a tendency to make business men look carefully to the approaches to roofs of their stores.

The Daily Sentinel. SATURDAY, SEPT. 19, 1885. THE CITY. Col. Sam B. Sweet, division freight agent of the Wabash, is in the city. Mrs. Mary Amstutz paid a fine yesterday for provoking one Edward Richl. The Pittsburgh shops were closed yesterday afternoon on account of the fair. Master of Transportation James W. Hunter will return from Kalamazoo tonight. Margaret Gray has sued Willard Gray for a divorce. A. H. Bittinger filed the complaint. Tom Kennedy says he was assaulted last night by a fellow who drove a dirk knife into his wrist. Passenger trains No. 7 and 8 on the Richmond road, as is the usual fall custom, have been taken off. John Phelps and Simon Kelly left yesterday for Saratoga, to take engines on the Hrosc Tunnel route. One hundred and fifty through passengers per day are handled on Wabash trains between St. Louis and Detroit. But two convicted felons now await transportation to the prison north. Sheriff Nelson will send them up early next week. The Sengerlund excursion train leaves the Wabash depot at 7:30 a. m. tomorrow. The round trip fare to Toledo is but $2. "Mrs. Fred L. Racine and two children, of Fort Wayne, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Salin, in Milford township," says the Kendallville Standard. The conductors of the Friendly Hand Division, No. 125, of the Wabash, will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers at Andrews, on Sunday. Mrs. John B. Mahus, of Covington, Ky., and Mrs. Herman Reuss, of Cincinnati, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Reuss, of Centerville's village. Eli Miner and Ella Johnson, Jacob L. White, Nettie J. Murray, James Wells and Mary Orelly, John Gilly and Elizabeth Delaron, have been permitted to commit matrimony. J. S. Finkenbinder, general agent of the Singer Sewing Machine company, for Virginia and North Carolina, is in the city on a visit. Mr. Finkenbinder is now a resident of Richmond, Va. The Sengerlund society will run an excursion to Toledo tomorrow. This is one of the most agreeable trips out of Fort Wayne and hundreds of people will avail themselves of the opportunity to go along. The earnings of the Wabash system for August were $1,132,396, against $1,427,533 for the corresponding year in 1884. The earnings of the road for the eight months of the year, $83,662,724, decrease this year, $778,916. A freight train and a construction train on the Grand Rapids and Indiana collided in a cut near Ridgeville, Tuesday. No one was hurt, but both locomotives were badly smashed. The collision was caused by misconstruction of orders. The usual quarterly missionary concert of the Presbyterian church, will be held at Kendallville, Sunday, September 27. Mrs. Wolk, of Fort Wayne, will make the address of the evening, and Miss Rose, of Winchester, Ind., will sing. There is a big camp fire at Andrews today. Col. D. N. Foster, of this city, was announced to deliver the principal address. Colonel Foster is the most popular commander the G. A. R. department of Indiana ever had and a man of marked brilliancy. Senaka Ogato, a native of Japan, and a graduate of DePauw University, will lecture at the Berry street M. E. church, next Thursday evening. He is highly recommended by those who have heard him. His lecture will be about his native land and will be very instructive. Two young ladies of the West End have been in the habit of occasionally putting on made attire and parading the streets on summer evenings. No doubt this is "done up" for you, young ladies, but it is contrary to law and the police may take a hand in the sport. Besides, it is naughty. Don't do so again. "The reformed gambler, Mac Long, who has been talking to crowds in the streets here for a few days past, and who has been making war on card-playing, dancing and drinking, and who has been gathering many dollars, left yesterday for the other side of the river, taking with him his quartet of vocalists. They gave an interesting street entertainment," says the Omaha Bee. The new split switch of the Missouri Pacific standard pattern is being put in everywhere on the main line of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railway as fast as they can be procured. They possess many merits over the old style switch. There being no points the common fault of "running" is avoided. Engines or cars cannot get off the track on account of the switch being left open, as the small bolts by which the spring contrivance is fastened will break and allow the wheels to pass in safety.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fisher, are at Toledo. Miss Sadie Churchill, is the guest of Miss Fannie Page. Capt. B. L. Lewis, night transfer agent, is at Chicago. Hon. Tom Stevens, the Monroeville philosopher, is in the city. Emanuel Brown, a drunkard, was committed to jail by the mayor this morning. Mary F. Sireh has sued David W. Sireh for a divorce. The Colericks are attorneys. Emma C. Emery was today divorced from John W. Emery. The suit was heard a year ago. David E. Deyer and Anna M. Schlatter, D. F. Sauer and Ella Mills have been licensed to marry. George Reiter has gone to Kansas to visit his son, a prosperous farmer there. He will be absent a month. The Wabash road runs a $6 excursion to Niagara Falls next Tuesday. This is cheaper than staying at home. Hon. Montgomery Hamilton and family have returned home after a delightful stay in the mountains of West Virginia. John Whinnery, of Grand Rapids, is in the city, the guest of Constable John Robison. Mr. Whinnery is an old Fort Wayne man. Detective Norris, of the Wabash road, is running down freight car thieves who have been annoying the company with frequent raids. In the event of Col. C. A. Zollinger's appointment to the office of state pension agent, George F. Shutt, of the Journal, will be his first deputy. The Anthony Wayne post, G. A. R., held a meeting last night and listened to a talk from Sergeant Jack Keimill, one of the cleverest boys in blue. Simon E. Mentzer, graduate of the Ohio Medical college, and John W. Guehrer, under ten-year clause, have been licensed to practice medicine. Roman Zeller was given a permit today by City Clerk Rockhill to build a one and one-half story brick stable, on lot 6 Johnson's addition, to cost $400. Esther A. Orff has quit claim to lot 165 Lanelle's addition to Charles Volz. Joseph Scheffer has sold to Helle B. Oglistice lot 5, C. D. Bond's out lot, for $3,000. W. C. DePauw, at the head of the great New Albany glass works, will probably preside at the meeting of the Young Men's Christian association soon to be held here. The indications for the power lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Generally fair weather, variable winds and nearly stationary temperature. Services will be held at the Grace Reformation church at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Bacher. You are always welcome in these services in the Lords house. Come and welcome. W. B. Reamer will have no successor on the Muncie, Sept. W. W. Worthington will assume supervision of the transportation department, with the assistance of A. S. Johnson and Homer Smith, train dispatchers. E. D. Ingersoll, railroad secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. committee, expects to be present at the coming state convention, Oct. 1 to 4, in this city. Mr. Ingersoll is not a stranger in our city. His headquarters are in New York City. There will be no exercises in St. Mary's church on account of the repairs being made. There will be services held in the school building, but this is so small that a great many of the members will have to go to the other Catholic churches to worship. Fred W. LeSueur has sued Henry Hood for $300; Dr. Lecher Trexler has sued W. T. Pratt et al for $1,100; Eliza C. Richards has sued John Michael for $250. Dr. Lecher Trexler has sued Daniel Cope for $200. The Colericks are attorneys for the plaintiffs. Douglas Pond, son of Frank Pond, died Thursday at Murray Hill hotel, New York. The remains will be brought home and the funeral will take place Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of Mrs. Pond's father, S. H. Shouff, 81 East Berry street. For several months past the Pennsylvania railroad company have been lighting one of their cars with incandescent electric lamps. The electricity is produced by brush storage batteries, which are charged once a week. The storage batteries are carried underneath the cars in boxes built to receive them. The light is said to be very satisfactory and not expensive. Tomorrow will be an occasion of special interest to the members of Plymouth Congregational church and congregation. It will be the fifth anniversary of the organization of that church. Sermon in the morning by Rev. L. P. Rose, of Indianapolis. The other services of morning and evening will be full of interest, and we hope, profit. Letters will be read from former pastors. The public are cordially invited.

THE CLOSURE. The Great Northern Indiana Fair Makes Its Annual Farewell Bow to the Summit City. The Great Northern Indiana fair of 1885 is at an end. It was never surpassed. No finer general exhibition and speed program was ever witnessed here and the fact that it was not better patronized is a mystery. Fine crowds of 10,000, 12,000 and so on were gathered on the grounds, and we think every person present were pleased with the entire fair from beginning to end. The managers spared nothing to make it a good fair. Large premiums were offered and every inducement made to bring the best stock in the country here. The fair managers will lose money for the first time since the organization of the present society. The closing record of the speed department can be found below, with a few references to the prominent exhibitors: SUMMARY: Northern Indiana Fair Association, Trotting 2,400 feet—Purse $200—Sept. 18th, 1885. Fred Moran 1 1 2 1 John R. Wise 2 2 2 2 Jesse Ballard 3 3 3 3 Delmo 4 4 4 4 Hamilton 5 5 5 5 Judge Brady 6 6 6 6 Conductor 7 7 7 7 Time: 2:30, 2:30, 2:30, 2:30. In the third heat Fred Moran was set back for running and no time was taken in that heat. THE 320 TROT—PURSE $200 There were only three starters out of the seven in this class. The summary is as follows: Judge Pierce 1 1 2 2 Boyd Shurt 3 3 3 3 Time: 2:30, 2:30, 2:30. Following this race came the great ladies' race between Madame Marquette and Miss Myrtle Peck, who by the way are sisters. Madame Marquette won owing to an accident to her younger sister who slipped from the horse just before the last heat. This was an exciting contest. HALF-MILE RUNNING RACE. The half-mile running race, best three in five, finished the turf events of the day. The race was not particularly exciting. Borrel Dan is a better horse than any of his competitors and he easily won as is shown by THE SUMMARY: Northern Indiana Fair Association, Sept. 18, 1885. Half-mile running, three in five. Purse $30. Naylor 1 1 2 2 Sorel Dan 3 3 3 3 Faith 4 4 4 4 Sully six 5 5 5 5 Time—30, 30, 30, 30. THE DISPLAYS. WAGNER & JOOST, PIANOS AND ORGANS. One of the most attractive displays on the grounds was found in the middle of the main building. It was that of Wagner & Joost, of 27 West Main street, dealers in pianos and organs. The display was tasteful throughout. Wagner is an experienced piano maker, trained in the best eastern factories, and Prof. Joost is widely and favorably known as a teacher of instrumental music. The firm thus has not only the components of success, but is such a one is able to make valuable suggestions to the seeker after a good instrument. They are agents for the pianos of Hazleton Bros. and Kramlich & Bach and besides rebuild, repair and tune pianos. Their warehouse has become headquarters for lovers of music. A HOME PICTURE. Mr. W. E. Griffiths, the well known Broadway hardware merchant, had a magnificent exhibit in the exposition building at the fair. A noticeable feature of the varied and extensive collection he displayed was the "Radiant Home" square stoves. They are beautiful and grace any parlor or sitting room. But a thing of beauty is not always desirable unless it renders service, and just here is where THE SENTINEL makes a point. The "Radiants" are household gods. They are superior to all others. They are heavy, massive, substantial and durable. They combine good working qualities, superior heating capacity, economy and durability in an eminent degree. In quality and smoothness of castings, thorough fitting and mounting, they are unequalled. The "Radiant Home" duplex grate" with which they are furnished, takes precedence over all others for the facility with which ashes and cinders are removed. They are cleanly, there being no escape of dust or ashes while cleaning the grate. To clean the grate, you simply turn it over and back again to its place; this dumps all the refuse in the grate instantly. They require but little attention, maintaining for hours an even, steady, continuous heat. The "Radiant Home" square stove stands unrivalled for excellence and beauty. This is the season to buy a stove and THE SENTINEL asks its readers to inspect Mr. Griffiths' stock before making a choice. You'll not regret it. THEY TELL THEIR OWN STORY. In a corner of the exposition building at the fair was a display that a few might thoughtlessly pass by. The most attractive thing about the collection, was a red prize ribbon knotted tastefully about the spoke of a buggy wheel from the White Wheel Works, of this city. The display included every design from the massive truck bearer to the light, handsome carriage and buggy wheel. Few people realized where these famous wheels whirled. One set were taken from a consignment billed to New Orleans, another was labeled for Cambridge, Maine, and still another is due at Sacramento, Cal. It is a fact, and THE SENTINEL makes it with pride, that the White wheels whirl on the roads and boulevards of every state from New York to California, and Maine to the Gulf of Mexico. The White Wheel works not only cover this territory but they supply home trade, probably a better testimonial to their durability and worth than any thing that could be conceived. When a man sells an article at home and it is worthless he promptly finds it out. There is no deception, no imperfection about the White wheels. They stand the test of time at home and abroad and go into the market through retail and wholesale local dealers as well as direct from the parent house. The White Wheel works are familiarly located in White's suburb, or addition. About the extensive works has grown up a metropolitan-like village which can be likened to Pullman, a Chicago suburb. This institution grows in favor and ere long its trade will encompass the globe. THE SENTINEL will live to record the fact. See if it don't. A DARING JOB. Keil Bros. Book Store Safe Cracked and Some $4000 in Cash Taken—Louis Wolf's Fur Rooms Touched. The most daring burglary recorded here in years was committed last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock. About 9:30 Monsieur Girard, who keeps a photograph gallery over Fred Eckert's meat market, discovered that some one had entered the glim in his studio and smashed the transom over a door to the picture gallery. He ran to the police station and on the way told Officer Lee of the occurrence. The patrolman hastened to the place and made a thorough search of the building. He was speedily reinforced by Captain Dehl and Lieut. Frank Wilkinson. Going up the stairway Officer Lee discovered three lady's fur boxes. This was a pointer that the thieves had fled, and so they did, for a son of Fred Eckert pointed one of the fellows out to Merchant Policeman Jesse Lehr, who did not care to follow the clue but asked Capt. Dehl to do so later. At this hour the officers knew not the extent of the raid and gave the matter up as a scare. There was somewhat of a surprise party this morning when the robbery was discovered. The thieves got into Eckert's building at about 8 o'clock and stole back through some vacant rooms and the work shop of Girard's photograph gallery. They climbed on the roof through the scuttle hole and with the aid of a ladder scaled the high wall of Keil Bros. book store, adjoining. Once on the roof, the thieves leisurely walked to the first floor where no light was burning and nothing left to interfere with their work. The crooks took a chisel and cut off the combination handle. With another instrument they forced in the bolt that connects the combination and turned the lock at their pleasure. It cannot be said how the inside burglar proof doors were opened, but they were and with such a degree of ease that stamps the old Mosler safe a flat failure. The firm of Keil Bros., had $600 cash in the safe. This was stored away. Mr. F. W. Keil had a private drawer in the safe. He kept his cash there and but last night added $200 cash to probably $400 he had in the box before that time. His loss will reach something like $500, but he is modest and makes it less. The firm loses but $99, as none of its stock nor a bundle of drafts were touched. A gold watch was taken from Keil Bros. safe. It was worth $50 and belonged to a lady who left it for safe keeping. Next the thieves got into Louis Wolf's store. They had no trouble getting into the third and fourth floors, but could not get to the second floor, as nothing but an elevator joins the two. The descent they would not hazard and contented themselves by taking a number of fur articles, but just of what value Mr. Wolf cannot now tell. His loss will not be heavy. Mr. Wolf closes his store at 7 o'clock and the Messrs. Keil locked their doors between 8:30 and 9 o'clock last night. The robbers were undoubtedly in the building then awaiting their time, because both burglaries did not consume a half an hour. It did not require twenty minutes to open Keil Bros.' safe and it startled a person to see how easy the cracked work is done. All the officers are working on the burglary, but the thieves are as sharp as the police and will not be caught. This theft will have a tendency to make business men look carefully to the approaches to roofs of their stores. "I was all run down, and Hoel's Sarsaparilla proved just the medicine I needed," write hundreds of people. Take it now. 100 doses $1.
